10 YEARS AGO

Paul Kiley and Harry Meile were announced as new teachers at Gould Academy.

Thirty-one Bethel boys attended a Red Sox-White Sox baseball game at Boston. The trip was made in one of Rodrick McMillin's buses.

Death: John A. MacKenzie.

20 YEARS AGO

Former members of Greenwood City School enjoyed a reunion and program with 114 present.

Edward Lowell was badly bruised and suffered a cracked elbow when his motorcycle left the road at West Bethel.

Nearly 50 men, employed by Rarr & Lane, were working on alterations of the Hamlin property and preparing to build the Gould Academy field house.

Death: Mrs. Della Noves.

Mrs. Mildred Rice, Ethel Keniston.

30 YEARS AGO

James Chapman bought the Robert Annis property at the corner of Railroad and Elm Streets.

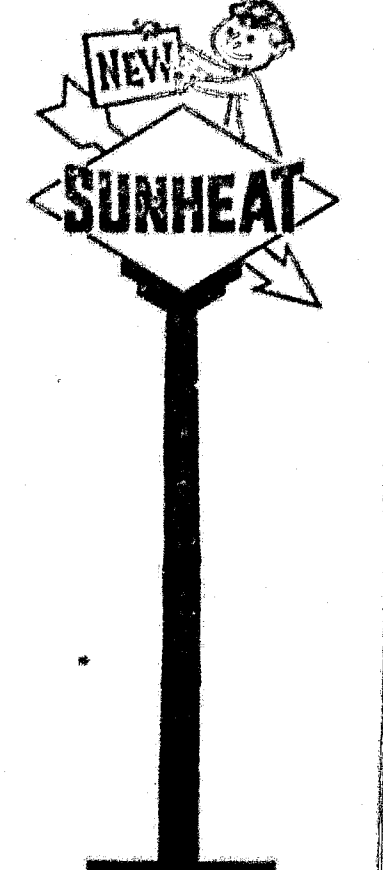

The Bethel ball team lost to West Paris 7-6 when West Paris lost four runs in the ninth inning.

60 YEARS AGO

60 Years Ago and more Popular Tavern at North Newry was a popular vacation center. Born here before the large recreation room was added at the left in this picture, the tavern attracted guests who stayed overnight or for much longer periods. Conveniently located on the daily stage route between Bethel and Upton, Lakeside or Errol, it was easily reached for a quiet vacation or few days fishing in Bear River which was spanned by the suspension bridge shown here. Across the river were a summer house, two tennis courts and a baseball field. Probably the property was owned by the Bear River Club when this picture was taken.
